

Affiliate Disclosure for GRAVITY

Effective Date: 01/09/2025

At GRAVITY, we are committed to transparency and ensuring our community is fully informed about any relationships we may have with affiliates, athletes, and coaches. This affiliate disclosure explains how we work with our athletes, stars, and coaches, and how these relationships may impact the content and products we share on our website.

1. Affiliate Relationships and Commissions

Some of the products and services promoted on our website or through our social media channels may contain affiliate links. When you click on an affiliate link and make a purchase, GRAVITY may receive a commission or compensation at no additional cost to you.

We work with athletes, stars, and coaches to promote our products and services. These individuals may earn commissions or other forms of compensation for promoting GRAVITY's products, sharing affiliate links, or using special discount codes.

- Athletes: These individuals are sponsored by GRAVITY and may promote our products in exchange for commissions, incentives, or other forms of compensation.
- Stars: These are hand-selected individuals who represent GRAVITY's mission and products. They may receive compensation, including affiliate commissions, for their promotion of GRAVITY products and services.
- Coaches: Our coaches may promote GRAVITY products and services to clients. They may earn commissions through affiliate links or discounts shared with their clients.

2. GRAVITY Affiliate Links

In addition to working with our athletes, stars, and coaches, GRAVITY also features affiliate links to recommended products on our website. These are products we genuinely believe in and use, and we may receive a commission if you decide to purchase them through the affiliate link. The affiliate links to recommended products on our site will not increase the price you pay. We only promote products and services that we believe will provide value to you, and the commissions we earn help us continue to improve our website and services.

3. No Additional Cost to You

Purchasing products through our affiliate links will not increase the price you pay. We want to make it clear that the affiliate commissions we earn help fund our ability to continue offering high-quality content, coaching services, and other valuable resources to our community.

4. Full Transparency

We are required by law to disclose any financial relationship or affiliate partnership we have. We take this responsibility seriously and aim to maintain transparency in all our marketing and promotional efforts.

If you ever have any questions about a specific affiliate link or relationship, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. We are always happy to clarify.

5. Changes to This Disclosure

We may update this affiliate disclosure as our business and relationships evolve. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated effective date. We encourage you to review this disclosure periodically to stay informed about how we work with affiliates, athletes, and stars. If you have any questions or concerns regarding our affiliate disclosure or relationships, feel free to contact us at: team@gravitymovement.com
