

GRAV1TY Accessibility Statement

Last Updated: 01/10/2025

GRAV1TY (“we,” “us,” or “our”) is committed to ensuring that our website (the “Site”) is accessible to all users, including individuals with disabilities. We strive to meet or exceed the requirements set forth in applicable accessibility standards, including the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, and comply with all relevant legal obligations related to digital accessibility.

We are continuously improving the accessibility of our Site to ensure that everyone, including users with disabilities, can access and navigate our content, products, and services with ease.

Accessibility Features

We have implemented various accessibility features in our Site, including, but not limited to:

- Screen Reader Compatibility
Our Site is designed to be compatible with popular screen readers used by individuals with visual impairments.
- Keyboard Navigation
All navigational elements on the Site are fully operable via keyboard for individuals with mobility impairments.
- Color Contrast and Visual Clarity
We ensure that all text and background combinations on our Site meet minimum contrast ratios to aid readability for individuals with visual impairments, including color blindness.
- Alt Text for Images
All images on the Site include alternative text descriptions (alt text) for screen readers and users who cannot view images.
- Video Accessibility
We provide captions and transcripts for any video content posted on our Site, where applicable.

Third-Party Content

While we strive to make all content on our Site accessible, we may utilize third-party platforms, services, or applications (e.g., embedded videos, social media plugins, or external tools) that may not fully comply with our accessibility standards. We are not responsible for the accessibility of content provided by these third parties. However, we actively monitor and address accessibility concerns relating to these platforms.

Contact Us for Accessibility Assistance

If you encounter any issues accessing the Site or require assistance, please contact us at:

- Email: team@grav1tymovement.com
- Phone: (808) 207-7720

We will make reasonable efforts to address any accessibility barriers and respond to any inquiries regarding accessibility requests.

Commitment to Ongoing Improvement

We are committed to providing an accessible online experience for all users. We will continue to monitor the effectiveness of our accessibility initiatives and take proactive steps to enhance the accessibility of our Site in compliance with the latest industry standards and legal requirements. While we strive to ensure accessibility, we recognize that accessibility is an ongoing process. We are constantly reviewing our Site to improve its accessibility and to ensure full compliance with applicable accessibility laws and regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and other relevant laws.

Legal Compliance

This Accessibility Statement is intended to comply with relevant accessibility laws and regulations. We are committed to providing equal access to information and services on our Site, and we will continue to improve the Site's accessibility in accordance with these obligations.

Disclaimer

We make no representations or warranties that the Site will be completely free of technical issues, or that all content will always be accessible to all users. We are actively working to identify and address accessibility barriers, but there may be instances where content or features may be inaccessible due to unforeseen technical issues, limitations of third-party tools, or other factors beyond our control.

Changes to This Accessibility Statement

We reserve the right to update or modify this Accessibility Statement at any time. Any changes to this statement will be posted on this page, and the "Last Updated" date will be revised accordingly. We encourage you to review this page periodically for updates.
